

“What would preaching be like if we wanted to do it in proportion to our frame? When I go into the pulpit, if I consider who I am, alas, I would not be able to proclaim the Word with such fullness as God demands. I would not be able to exhort myself and others, and we would all stagnate in our filth. . . . although we are poor weak sinners, we must nonetheless continue to press God’s right, since he has established us as his advocates.” (John Calvin)

As we gather for the Lord’s Supper, our Lord has given us certain guidelines that we must follow. Those who participate must first possess a credible profession of faith (2 Cor 5:17). Secondly, because the Supper is a church ordinance, participants must be baptized members in good standing in a gospel preaching church (Acts 2:41–42).

We welcome visitors to unite with us at the Lord’s Table in accordance with the above guidelines.

The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin
Mary;

Suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;

He descended into hell;

The third day he arose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost;
The holy catholic¹ church;
The communion of the saints;
The forgiveness of sins;
The resurrection of the body;
And the life everlasting. Amen.

¹ The word catholic means universal.
